Event Agreement

By checking the box below, I agree that all publicity (including media releases, print/promotional materials, etc.) for the proposed event must be approved by Camp Rap-A-Hope prior to being printed, released, etc. Camp Rap-A-Hope shall have the right at any time and for any reason to request in writing that the Third Party cease use of the Camp Rap-A-Hope logo in connection with the event and the Third Party shall use its best efforts to comply with such request.

It is understood that Camp Rap-A-Hope in no way endorses any products or services used in connection with the event and shall not be held liable for any damages, costs, injury to the person or property or any other loss from the event. Camp Rap-A-Hope will not be held liable for any financial losses incurred by the event.

The Third Party will indemnify, defend and hold Camp Rap-A-Hope harmless from all claims, causes of action and damages of any kind arising out of or in connection with the community event, including but not limited to property damage or personal injury or other cause of action of any kind arising out of or in connection with the event.

This event in no way represents a joint venture or partnership. All proposals for cause marketing must be accompanied by a full business plan.

I have spoken to a Camp Rap-A-Hope Representative about tax receipting and the IRS Guidelines as it relates to the planning of this event. I have read and understood the Camp Rap-A-Hope Community Event Guidelines as well as my role as an event organizer.

Tax receipts will not be issued unless you have discussed your event with a Camp Rap-A-Hope representative. Please note that a full event accounting is required before tax receipts can be issued.
